

AdministrationStaff Handbooks

The Superintendent shall have the authority to establish staff handbooks. The handbooks shall define the duties of all special school officers and employees; define responsibilities, duties and policies concerning the relation of personnel to the administration, the community and the students; shall list the responsibilities of the administration to the staff together with staff welfare measures; and shall list general policies pertaining to students. Staff handbooks shall, when approved by the Board, have the effect of Board policy and control over any conflicting Board policy adopted prior to the staff handbook in the event of a direct conflict.

All staff shall be furnished or be provided access to a handbook at the beginning of each school year. Should a circumstance present itself that is not covered by the provisions of the staff handbook applicable to a specific employee, reference should be made to Board policy.
